

Having trouble paying your fines?

There are a few options to take. One is to get a
Work Development Order (WDO)

This means you can pay your fine off doing activities. Some activities include:

- Unpaid Voluntary work
- Education, training or life skills courses
- Counselling (includes case management)
- Financial counselling
- Medical or mental health treatment programs
- Drug and Alcohol Programs
- Mentoring Programs (for under 25's)

How does it work?

1. Get a WDO sponsor
2. Agree on activities to pay off your fine
3. Complete your WDO Hours

Any enforcement action against you, such as a licence restriction or other sanctions will be lifted as soon as your WDO starts.
